IN MEMORIAM

Beethoven club in memory of Mrs. Josephine Bush Harpmann:
It is one thing to be remembered; it is an unusual thing for one human life to impress itself so remarkably along the lines of beauty and duty as did the life of this able and beloved friend. Nature had been lavish with her gifts, for she possessed charm, culture and heart, and the Beethoven club feels her loss most deeply.

To her bereaved children the club wishes to express its abiding sympathy. The memory of such a mother and friend will be a light to life's path.

The tragic death of Justus Miles Forman, who ranked among the foremost American novelists, and who was a prominent victim of the sinking of the Lusitania on May 7, 1915, by a German submarine, is recalled by the announcement that the best of his works of fiction may now be seen in motion piction may now be seen in motion piction of the manual seed of the state of CALVARY EPISCOPAL.

which will be shown at Majestic No. 3 Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, tells the story of the English nurse, Edith Cavell, who was shot by the Huns for aiding her countrymen to escape (although she had threisenly cared for Germany's wounded). The name of Julia Arthur featured as Nurse Cavell cannot fall to arouse interest aside from the subject matter, and as the scenario was written by Anthony Paul Kelly, author of so many successes, it would seem that right here is ample recommendation of the picture's desirability. It is essentially a tragic subject, simply telling the facts in the Elith Cavell case and appealing to the human side of man's nature.

The author has adnered strictly to the facts known about the Cavell case. John G. Adolff has covered himself with glory in his direction of the picture. He has treated the subject in a way to make the martyr-nurse live in memory as a truly noble figure, and

The tight cold is the kind Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey likes to tackle—the hard-to-get-rid-of kind. It gets on the job and helps Nature to loosen the cold and then finally to relieve it. You soon will feel like yourself.

The balsam and other healing, soothing ingredients do it. The phiegm soon loosens, the inflammation is alleviated, the "tightness" gives way, without uncomfortable after-effects. Get a bottle today, 80c, 60c and $1.20.

Secretary Daniels Will Go to New York to Review First of American Armada to Return to Home Waters.

turn to Home Waters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Return to home waters of the first ships of the American armada sent to Europe to combat German sea power, will be marked by a great naval pageant in New York harbor about Dec. 23. Secretary Daniels announced Friday that he will go to New York on the Mayflower, to review the fleet, which will be led by Admiral Mayo, commander in chief of the Athantic fleet, on his flagship, the Pennsylvania, which accompanied President Wilson to Europe. In the homecoming fleet will be nine dreadnoughts, 20 destroyers and more than 40 converted yachts, mine planters, submarines and other craft. The destroyer force, part of which already is on the way to New York, includes many of the vensels first sent to the war sone and some of them carry on their funnels the stars awarded for destruction of German submarines.

Owing to the character of some of the craft ordered home no definite date can be set for their arrival, and it is possible that some of the smaller ships will not get back in time for the review, which will give the people of the country an opportunity to see the fighting ships that helped materially to defeat the German menace. Efforts will be made, however, to bring as many as possible of the returning vessels into port together.

Instructions to Admiral Mayo called for the return of all naval craft that can be spared. Some portlons of the American forces, however, must remain on the other side temporarily to com-

The trouble starts when Waiter Hurity parchases a pair of sipports for his financee, Mabel Brown, who breaks off the engagement before. Huntley had time to give her the slippers. Having no other use for them he gives them to his maid. Mrs. Leffingwell huys an identical paid, and when Mr. Leffingwell huntley's apartment and sees a pair of feet wearing the slippers, he naturally thinks it is his wife in Huntley's roundand he had had occasion to be suspicious of Huntley on several occasions.

When Mabel's sister-in-law gives a party at which Huntley and Mrs Leffingwell both attent, Mr. Leffingwell has another opportunity to become 'es' ous. He hurries to the Brown home and finds a pair of slippers driving before an open grate. The maid finds the boots, and as it is the same maid who once worked for Huntley, the selzes the slippers, thinking that someone has taken them from her roson. At that moment Mrs. Leftingwell appears and claims the slippers. Then the maid goes to her room and gets the original pair, which serve to re-unite Mabol and Huntley and patch up the difference between the two Leffingwells.
